Computer Science after School

Seth Horrigan

Berkeley Institute of Design

School of Computer Science

University of California, Berkeley

eomer @ eecs.berkeley.edu

Where can you go from here

- Academia

- Industry

Why me

- Undergraduate degree: Bachelor's of Science in Computer Science from

The Georgia Institute of Technology

- Work experience: 2 years at

Autodesk: Constructware

What can you expect in industry

What can you expect in industry

- Starting salary

  - B.S. ~$59,000 (Berkeley Career Center)

  - M.S. $60,000 - $100,000 (Berkeley EECS)

  - Ph.D. $40,000 - $120,000 (Berkeley EECS)

What can you expect in industry

- Small Company

- Big Company

What can you expect in industry

What can you expect in industry

- Lots of teamwork
  - CS3 Connect Four ~500 lines of code
  - Mac Office ~30,000,000 lines of code
  - Windows XP ~40,000,000 lines of code

- More than just programming

- Always learning

What is my advice

- Do what you like

- Company culture is the key

Where do you find out more

- Infosessions

- Career fairs

- Internships